(By J. H. P., Baltimoye, Md.)

CHILDREN OF THE REV. JOHN³ GORSUCH (DANIEL², WILLIAM¹) AND HIS WIFE ANNE LOVELACE. (Continued):

9. CHARLES⁴ GORSUCH OF BALTIMORE COUNTY AND HIS DESCENDANTS

6. Lovelace⁶ Gorsuch (Thomas⁵, Charles⁴). He was the eldest son of Thomas⁵ Gorsuch and his wife Jene Ensor, and was born about 1715. His name is usually spelled Loveless in the records. He signed, Aug. 1st, 1733, as "next of kin", the inventory of Robert Gorsuch (ante 24;218,220). He was foreman of the Baltimore County Grand Jury, August 1744 (Balto.Co.Court Proc. 1743;293), and in 1754 and 1755 was appointed Overseer of Highways from "Steven Gill's to the Court Road and from Jones Falls to William Pearce's along the Court Road" (Balto.CoCourt Proc. B.B.,No.A,447 & B.B.,No.B,396). Loveless Gorsuch purchased from George Ogg in 1755 Morgan's Tents Resurveyed, 238 acres, and Plum Tree Bottom, 30 acres, on Morgan's Run, near the present Baltimore-Carroll county line (Balto.Deeds B.B.,No.J,385). Loveless Gorsuch patented Tom's Folly, 52½ acres, which he and his wife Sarah sold Sept. 13th, 1769, to Luke Davis (Balto. Deeds A. L., No. A, 453). He inherited Friendship, 120 acres, [on Beaver Dam Run] under his father's will, 1774. Lovelace⁶ Gorsuch was a Quaker as is shown by the probate of the will of his brother Thomas⁵ Gorsuch. The family name of his wife Sarah is not known. He married her prior to 1752. His will, dated May 8th, 1779, and proved July 10th, 1783, shows that he was then living on his plantation Friendship, which he leaves to his son John, and divides Morgan's Tents and Plum Tree Bottom between his sons Nathan and Thomas. He names as his children who are settled and already have had their filial portions, Jane, Nathan, Thomas, Sarah, Ann and Elizabeth. He leaves special bequests to his children Ruth, Rachel, Prudence, Charity, Charcella, Elizabeth, Ann, Sarah, and Jene. His executors were his sons Nathan and Thomas, and the witnesses were Joseph Cockey, Norman Gorsuch, Zacahary Kelly and Thomas Kelly (Balto. Wills, 3, 498). The will of his widow Sarah Gorsuch, dated Feb. 20th, 1800, and proved April 14th, 1802, names her son John and makes bequests to her grandson Nicholas Gorsuch, to her son Thomas Gorsuch and to her daughters Sarah Beeseman, Nancy Bond, Elizabeth Bond, Charity Kelly, Chiscilla Gorsuch, Rachael Griffith and Prudence Williams. She also makes bequests to her granddaughters Sarah Stevenson, Rebecca Hawkins and Mary Hawkins, children of Joseph Hawkins; to her three granddaughters Sarah, Rachael and Chiscilla Williams, daughters of John Williams, and to Nicholas Gorsuch, the son of Chiscilla Gorsuch. Her son John Gorsuch was made residuary legatee and executor. (Balto. Wills, 6, 536).

- ii Nathan⁷ Gorsuch (Lovelace⁶, Thomas⁵, Charles⁴). Probably born about 1760. Died 1788. His will dated April 13th, 1788, and proved December 6th, 1788, indicates that he had no wife. He refers to his father Loveless Gorsuch, deceased, his mother Sarah, his sister Carcila Gorsuch and her son Nicholas Gorsuch. He appoints his mother and his brother Thomas executors. (Balto. Wills, 4, 319).

He purchased, 1765, Peter's Discovery, 65 acres, on the north fork of the Patapsco from Thomas Stevens (Balto. Deeds, B. No. O. 574). He received under the will of his father, jointly with his brother John, the tracts Ensor's Choice and Loveless's Addition, which were afterwards resurveyed for them jointly as Gorsuch's Regulation. Thomas Gorsuch of Thomas, planter, made his will April 5th, 1777, proved Nov. 24th, 1777 (Balto. Wills, 3, 321). He left to his son Lovelace, Peter's Discovery, 140 acres, and Buck's Range, 10 acres; to the guardian of his son Nathan £50 and the money to be derived from the sale of the testator's one-half interest in land left jointly to the testator and his brother John under his father's will; to his son John the remainder of Buck's Range and Rochester and £50. He names his daughters Urith, Ruth and Rachael, and appoints William Welsh and his son Lovelace Gorsuch trustees, guardians and executors. The name of his wife is unknown. The administration account, 1791, shows the marriages of his three daughters.

Issue of Thomas⁶ Gorsuch (Thomas⁵, Charles⁴) and his wife———.

 8. John⁶ Gorsuch (Thomas⁵, Charles⁴). He was the youngest son of Thomas⁵ Gorsuch and his wife Jane Ensor. A deposition shows that he was born about 1730 (Balto. Deeds W. G.; N. N.; 405). Under the will of his father he and his brother Thomas received jointly Ensor's Choice, 100 acres, and Loveley's Addition, 100 acres, which they later resurveyed as Gorsuch's Regulation, 160 acres. John Gorsuch son of Thomas, March 29th, 1755, had surveyed and patented Charles' Mistake (Annap. Rent Roll). This John⁶ Gorsuch dealt extensively in Baltimore County land. Some of the tracts owned by him in 1771, in addition to those mentioned, were Anderson's Barrens, 100 acres; part of the Sign of the Panther, 50 acres; part of Ensor's Inspection, 3 acres; and two lots in Baltimore Town. It is learned from the family Bible of his son Robert Gorsuch that he married Elizabeth Merryman, March 11th, 1755, and that she was the daughter of John Merryman and his wife Sarah Rogers, whom he married December 30th, 1725. The Bible records the death of Elizabeth wife of John Gorsuch September 2nd, 1795, aged 63 years. The register of St. Paul's records the birth of Elizabeth, daughter of John and Sarah Merryman, June 4th, 1734. John Gorsuch died August 2nd, 1808. His estate was administered upon August 20th, 1808, by his son John M. Gorsuch. The administration account of August 24th, 1822, gives a list of the descendants of John⁶ Gorsuch. It is thought that this John Gorsuch lived at Homestead, where his son Robert⁷ afterwards lived, on the Harford Road near what is now Gorsuch Avenue, in north Baltimore.

He married March 4th, 1735, Mary Price (St. Paul's Register) He acquired from his father, in 1737 by gift, the tract Bethel, and in 1741 by purchase, part of Contrivance to Cole's Choice, both on the Western Run branch of the Gunpowder near where it is crossed by the York Road. He also purchased in the same neighborhood, parts of Cole's Choice, Bought Dear, and Round About. These comprised in all a farm of about 520 acres (Annap. Debt Books). He sold Sept. 4th, 1746, to his brother William⁶ Gorsuch, Matthews' Farm, etc. which he had inherited as heir-at-law of his father. John⁶ Gorsuch died in 1796 when over 80 years of age. His will, dated September 6th, 1788, and proved April 20th 1796, in which he is described as John Gorsuch, Senr., divides his farm, Cole's Choice, etc., between his two sons Charles and John, gives his daughter Mary Gittings two lots in Baltimore Town and cuts off his daughters Sarah Gill and Rachel Bosley with five shillings each "for reasons best known to myself" (Balto. John Gill was born February 4th, 1737, and was the son of John Gill (born Oct. 2nd, 1709) and his wife Mary Rogers (born 1712), who was the daughter of Nicholas and Eleanor Rogers. (St. John's, Reisters-town, Register).
- v Mary⁷ Gorsuch (John⁶, Charles⁵, Charles⁴). Married October 5th, 1779, James Gittings. Living 1788.

10. William⁶ Gorsuch (Charles⁵, Charles⁴). He was the second son of Charles⁵ Gorsuch by his first wife, and was probably born about 1715-1718. He was amember of the Baltimore County Grand Jury November, 1750 (Balto. Co. Ct. Proc. T. R., No. 6, 1). September 4th, 1746, John⁶ Gorsuch and his wife Mary convey to "my beloved brother William Gorsuch" three tracts Matthews Farm, 100 acres, Matthews Meadow, 50 acres, and Matthews Addition, part of Addition to Poor Jamaica Man's Plague, 50 acres, "on the north side of the Patapsco in the woods on Bushey Ridge at the head of a branch [Suttons Run], descending into the Gunpowder River" (Balto. Deeds T. B. ;E., 186). This land had been inherited by John⁶ Gorsuch as the heir-at-law of his father. William⁶ Gorsuch, Sr., September 5th, 1778, no wife joining, conveyed Matthews Meadow to [his son] John Gorsuch. (idem W. G.; No. C, 16), and also subsequently deeded other portions of these tracts to Richard Stansbury and to Thomas Blockley. Suttons Run was the old name for Goodwins Run, and and these tracts are situated on the ridge extending north westerly from Lutherville towards the Falls Road.

The will of William Gorsage of Baltimore County, dated February 17th, 1792, was proved June 17th, 1797. He left all of his lands in Baltimore County to his daughter Jemima, she to pay her sister Sarah £3 a year if in need, He left one shilling each to [his son] John Gorsuch, to his son William Gorsuch and to his son Charles Gcрсuch. He appointed his daughter Jemima executrix (Balto. Wills 5, 534).

Issue of William⁶ Gorsuch (Charles⁵, Charles⁴) and his wife.....:

- i John⁷ Gorsuch (William⁶ Charles⁵, Charles⁴). He was probably the eldest son and was born about 1755. His father deeded Matthews Meadow, 40 acres, to him in 1778, which as "John Gorsuch of William, farmer" he and his wife Mary sold to Benjamin Parks in 1792 (see William⁶ ante). It was apparently this John Gorsuch to whom a license to marry McClung was issued October 5rd, 1791, and who joined her in a deed as one of the heirs of Robert McClung October 25th, 1792 (Balto. Deeds W. G.: K. K., 541). Mary McClung was the daughter of Robert McClung of Baltimore County (Adm. Accts. 10; 546).
- ii William⁷ Gorsuch (William⁶, Charles⁵, Charles⁴). Living in 1792. Received one shilling under the will of his father. Nothing definitely is known about him. It was probably this William who married Caroline Tipton by license January 9th, 1785, and Penelope Tipton November 16th, 1786 (Balto. Co. Marriage License); and it may have been this William Gorsuch who is named in the will of William Welsh of Baltimore County, September 6th, 1802, proved September 13th, 1802 (Balto. Wills 1802), and who gave a release for his legacy September 16th, 1829 (Balto. Releases 7; 210).

- iii Charles⁷ Gorsuch (William⁶, Charles⁵, Charles⁴). Living in 1792. Received one shilling under his father's will, 1792. He cannot be certainly indentified thereafter. It may have been this Charles Gorsuch who married Rebecca Gorsuch Nov. 2nd, 1786 (Early Maryland Marriages Md. Hist. Soc).
- iv Jemima Gorsuch (William⁶, Charles⁵, Charles⁴). She received all her father's personal estate and land under his will. She was apparently unmarried, April 15th, 1802, when as Jemima Gorsuch she conveyed part of Matthews Meadow bounding on the land sold by William Gorsuch to his son John (Balto. Deeds W. G. 75; 70). See also conveyed in 1833 and 1834 land received from her father (idem W. G. 229; 61: W. G. 234; 649).
- v Sarah⁷ Gorsuch (William⁶, Charles⁵, Charles⁴). Living 1792, when under the terms of her father's will her sister Jemima was to pay her £3 annually if needed. Not certainly traced. Could she have been the Sarah Gorsuch who married Benedict Hurst by license January 1st, 1791?

11. Charles⁶ Gorsuch (Charles⁵, Charles⁴). He was the third son of Charles⁵ Gorsuch, and the eldest son by his second wife, Sarah Cole. He was born October 12th, 1729 (St. Paul's Register). He died 1792. He is first indentified as a land owner, when as "Charles Gorsuch son of Charles", he has surveyed for him November 6th, 1770, and patented August 25th, 1771, Cole's Search Amended, 270 acres, part of His Lordships Reserve on the Western Run branch of the Gunpowder. The family name of Charles⁶ Gorsuch's wife Sarah, whom he married as early as 1750, is not known. The baptism of six children of Charles and Sarah Gorsuch, viz: Thomas, Dorcas, Charles, Benjamin, Elisha and Joshua, between 1750 and 1759, as given below, are found in the St. Paul's Register. That she was the mother of his younger children born after 1759, is not certain.

Charles⁶ Gorsuch's will, dated August 5rd, 1792, was proved December 14th, 1792. He left to his sons Thomas, Charles, Benjamin, Elisha and John one shilling each, as they had already received their share of his estate. He left £15 each to his daughters Sarah, Dorcas and Ruth. To his son Joshua lot *305, and to his son David lot *323, Philpot Point, Baltimore Town. To his son William, who was made executor, he left "my dwelling plantaion Cole's Search Amended" for six years after the testator's death, the plantation then to go to the testator's son Nicholas. The balance of his personal estate to his son William. No wife is mentioned (Balto. Wills 5, 69). The account of January 25th, 1794, shows legacies of £15 paid to Charles Perego who married Ruth Gorsuch, Ahraham Hicks who married Sarah Gorsuch, and John Ensor who married Dorcas Gorsuch, while William Gorsuch received £516: 15: 3.

Issue of Charles⁶ Gorsuch (Charles⁵, Charles⁴). and his wife Sarah (order uncertain):

27. i Thomas⁷ Gorsuch (Charles⁶, Charles⁵, Charles⁴). Born January 5th, 1750-1 (St. Paul's Register). Died 1800. Married March 29th, 1779, Kesiah Wheeler. Left issue.
 - ii Dorcas⁷ Gorsuch (Charles⁶, Charles⁵, Charles⁴). Born June 50th, 1752 (St. Paul's Register). Married July 2nd, 1772, John Ensor (St. John's Register). She was living in 1794, when she was paid a legacy from her father's estate.
 28. iii Charles⁷ Gorsuch (Charles⁶, Charles⁵, Charles⁴). Born February 1st, 1753-4 (St. Paul's Register). He married about 1777, Hannah [Bosley⁶] Left issue.
 29. iv Benjamin⁷ Gorsuch (Charles⁶, Charles⁵, Charles⁴). Born April 29th, 1755 (St. Paul's Register). Died 1794. Married June 3rd, 1783, Mary Holland. Left issue.
 30. v Elisha⁷ Gorsuch (Charles⁶ Charles⁵, Charles⁴). Born January 21st, 1757 (St. Paul's Register). Died 1820. Married September 14th, 1803 Susanna Miller. Left issue.
 - vi Joshua⁷ Gorsuch (Charles⁶, Charles⁵, Charles⁴). Born April 20th, 1759. (St. Paul's Register). Died 1797. Apparently died unmarried, as in a deed, Mar. 16, 1793, he is not joined by a wife (Balto. Deeds W. G. K. K. ,524), and his will, June 4, 1797, and proved June 28, 1797, makes his brother Nicholas, executor, and divides his estate among Thomas, John and Benjamin, sons of [his brother] Benjamin Gorsuch, deceased (Balto. Wills 6; 5).
- Issue of Charles⁶ Gorsuch (Charles⁵ Charles⁴), possibly by his second wife:
- vii John ⁷Gorsuch (Charles⁶, Charles⁵, Charles⁴). Probably born after 1760. Living 1792. It was probably this John Gorsuch who, in 1791 and 1796, with Charles Perego [who married Ruth⁷ Gorsuch, his sister] sold Jeopardy, etc., no wife joining John Gorsuch, which they had bought jointly in 1788. It may have been this John Gorsuch who married Mary Riley by license November 29th, 1797, but he has not been certainly traced.
 31. viii David⁷ Gorsuch (Charles⁶, Charles⁵, Charles⁴). Born 1760-1765. He died 1841. Married Rebecca Gorsuch by license October 30th, 1786. Left issue.
 32. ix William⁷ Gorsuch (Charles⁶, Charles⁵, Charles⁴). Born November 27th, 1769. Died January 16th, 1846. Married 1st June 30th, 1793, Averilla Vaughan. He married 2nd, June 30th 1803, Ann McIntire. Left issue by both wives.

33. x Nicholas⁷ Gorsuch (Charles⁶, Charles⁵, Charles⁴). Born 1774. Died May 26th, 1839. Married 1st Nancy Glenn; married 2nd Agnes Glenn. Left no issue.

xi Sarah⁷ Gorsuch (Charles⁶, Charles⁵, Charles⁴). Born about 1764. Married Abraham Hicks by license March 2nd, 1781. Living 1794 when she received £15 from her father's estate.

xii Ruth⁷ Gorsuch (Charles⁶, Charles⁵, Charles⁴). Born about 1766. Married Charles Peregoy, by license June 15th, 1785. She had two daughters living 1849, viz: Ann married Elias Read, and Elizabeth married George Shipley (Balto. Deeds *411; 445).

12. Benjamin⁶ Gorsuch (Charles⁵, Charles⁴). He was the fourth son of Charles⁵ Gorsuch, and the second son by his second wife Sarah Cole. He was born October 17th, 1730. (St. Paul's Register). and was living as late as 1796. The name of his first wife is not known. He married secondly July 17th, 1760, Kerenhappuch Johnson (St. John's Register). She was probably the daughter of Jacob Johnson, who leased part of Clynmalyra from Charles Carroll in 1766. The names of three sons, Charles, Nathan and Thomas, have been learned indirectly from deeds. It is quite probably that he had at least another son Jacob*, and that he also had daughters. There is a deed February 8th, 1762, from John Woodward of Baltimore County, and his wife Elizabeth, conveying for a nominal consideration, part of lot No. 39 in Baltimore Town to his nephew Nathan, with reversion to his nephew Charles, respectively the youngest and eldest sons of Benjamin Gorsuch; and the same day he conveys the remainder of the same lot to David⁶ Gorsuch [a brother of Benjamin⁶ Gorsuch] (Balto. Deeds B. No. 1, 490, 491). There is another deed, dated August 3rd, 1798, executed by Thomas Gorsuch of Benjamin for land bought in 1794 by the grantor (idem W. J. No. 56, 138). As a witness of the will of William Sinclair, February 13th, 1793, Benjamin⁶ Gorsuch made his mark. This Benjamin⁶ Gorsuch must be carefully distinguished from his nephew Benjamin⁷ Gorsuch (Charles⁶, Charles⁵, Charles⁴) who was not a marksman. Benjamin⁶ Gorsuch appears in the "Tax List of 1783" and in the "Census of 1790" as living in Mine Run Hundred, on "175 acres, part of Carroll's Manor", apparently in what is now the north eastern part of Baltimore County, which he may have inherited from his wife ,Kerenhappuch Johnson. His sons Charles and Nathan were certainly children of his first marriage. The maternity of Thomas is uncertain.

*Jacob Gorsuch, January 21st, 1796, married by license Elizabeth Hetherton. Benjamin⁶ Gorsuch and Jacob Gorsuch, February 13th, 1793, witnessed the will of William Sinclair, Jacob signing his name, and Benjamin making his mark. January 21st, 1910, Jacob Gorsuch, of Baltimore City, and his wife Elizabeth executed a deed (Balto. Deeds W. G. No. 109, 276). By exclusion Jacob Gorsuch would appear to be of the line of Benjamin⁶ Gorsuch.

According to family papers she was the daughter of Jonathan Hanson and his wife Sarah Spicer, and was born August 12th, 1741. After the death of David Gorsuch, she married by license, December 8th, 1785, Daniel Weatherby, and may have been the Elizabeth Weatherby who married Joseph Gardiner by license June 5th, 1802. David Gorsuch died May, 1784. His will dated May 5th, and proved May 26th, 1784, mentions his wife Elizabeth, his daughter Sarah, deceased, and the latter's son Charles Stansbury. He leaves to his daughter Elizabeth Gorsuch and to her son William Gorsuch his house at Fells Point now inhabited by her. He divides the remainder of his property between his daughters Mary, Jemima, Kesiah, Kerenhappuch and Ann Gorsuch. He leaves to [his sister?] Barbara Wilkinson lot No. 35 bought of Lancelot Watson where she now lives. He made his wife Elizabeth and his friends Josias Pennington and William Askew executors (Balto. The account of August 10th, 1791, shows that Christopher Buck had married his daughter Kesiah, and that James Stansbury had married one of his daughters.
